

Welcome to the official gear and tracklist guide for 'In No Memory', the latest album from CausaliDox. This document offers an exclusive look at the array of synthesizers, sequencers, sound sources, effects, and filters used in each track.

All tracks were composed, arranged and mixed using hardware only.

The tracks were mixed on a 48 channel Soundcraft K2, with an SPL Stereo Vitalizer Mk2-T and a Thermionic Culture Culture Vulture 20th Anniversary Limited Edition on the Master Bus, and recorded via an RME Fireface UC into Steinberg Wavelab at 24/96.

Designed for fans, fellow musicians, and connoisseurs of cutting-edge electronic music, this guide details the technical artistry behind CausaliDox's unique soundscapes. Dive into the complexities and nuances of each composition, and experience 'In No Memory' through the lens of its intricate production elements.
